When a financial institution or commercial bank suffers fire, water, wind, or other types of damage, the resulting consequences affect not just your facility's employees and customers, but could reach the local economy and beyond. With 25 years of experience restoring facilities in the financial services industry, Cotton Global Disaster Solutions (GDS) understands the importance of these properties. Without a stable financial infrastructure, it isn't just the company that suffers-- it's the entire community.

That's why when a disaster or unplanned event strikes your commercial banking property, Cotton mobilizes immediately with solutions designed to keep your financial systems continuously online, thereby ensuring your customers never have to worry about the safety and security of their finances. Whether it's providing content and data recovery for sensitive financial documents that were damaged by flooding or board-up services following a major fire, our crews have the necessary resources and expertise to navigate any kind of unforeseen situation. Reach out to our emergency hotline 24/7 to access these comprehensive turnkey services anytime and to connect with a specialist who can quickly help determine the right plan of action to guarantee your bank or financial institution never loses a moment of service to its customers.
