

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Austin, Texas – June 3rd, 2024 - Prepare for an evening of musical brilliance and collaboration as the 04 Center in Austin, Texas sets the stage for a double-header music event on June 29th, 2024, featuring the incomparable talents of Wendy Colonna and Ginger Leigh. This special event not only marks the debut of their latest releases but also celebrates the spirit of partnership and creativity with a lineup of exceptional musical collaborators. Both are recipients of the City of Austin Live Music Fund Grant.

Wendy Colonna, a Louisiana native with roots deeply intertwined with the music-rich culture of Cajun Country, will unveil her highly anticipated album, "The Paradigm Project." Collaborating with Austin-based producers including Dave Madden, Noelle Hampton, Katie Marie, and Rachel Keane, Wendy's ninth full-length album promises to captivate audiences with its soulful melodies and poignant lyrics. With each song representing a milestone moment in life, Wendy and her collaborators invite audiences to embark on a journey of introspection, inspiration, and musical discovery.

Meanwhile, Ginger Leigh, renowned for her dynamic stage presence and genre-defying sound, will grace the stage with her latest traditional jazz EP, as well as three singles fitting into the crossover genre of sophisti-pop. Backed by a talented rock and jazz ensemble and featuring collaborations with acclaimed producer Noelle Hampton, Ginger's new releases promises to push boundaries and redefine expectations. With her signature blend of soulful melodies and electrifying performances, Ginger and her collaborators invite audiences to experience music in its purest form - a celebration of creativity, expression, and unity.

Join us for an unforgettable night of music and camaraderie as Wendy Colonna and Ginger Leigh, alongside their exceptional band and esteemed musical collaborators, come together to share their gifts with the world. Don't miss this opportunity to witness the magic of live music in the heart of Austin, Texas.
