

Westcave Story: ANSWER KEY

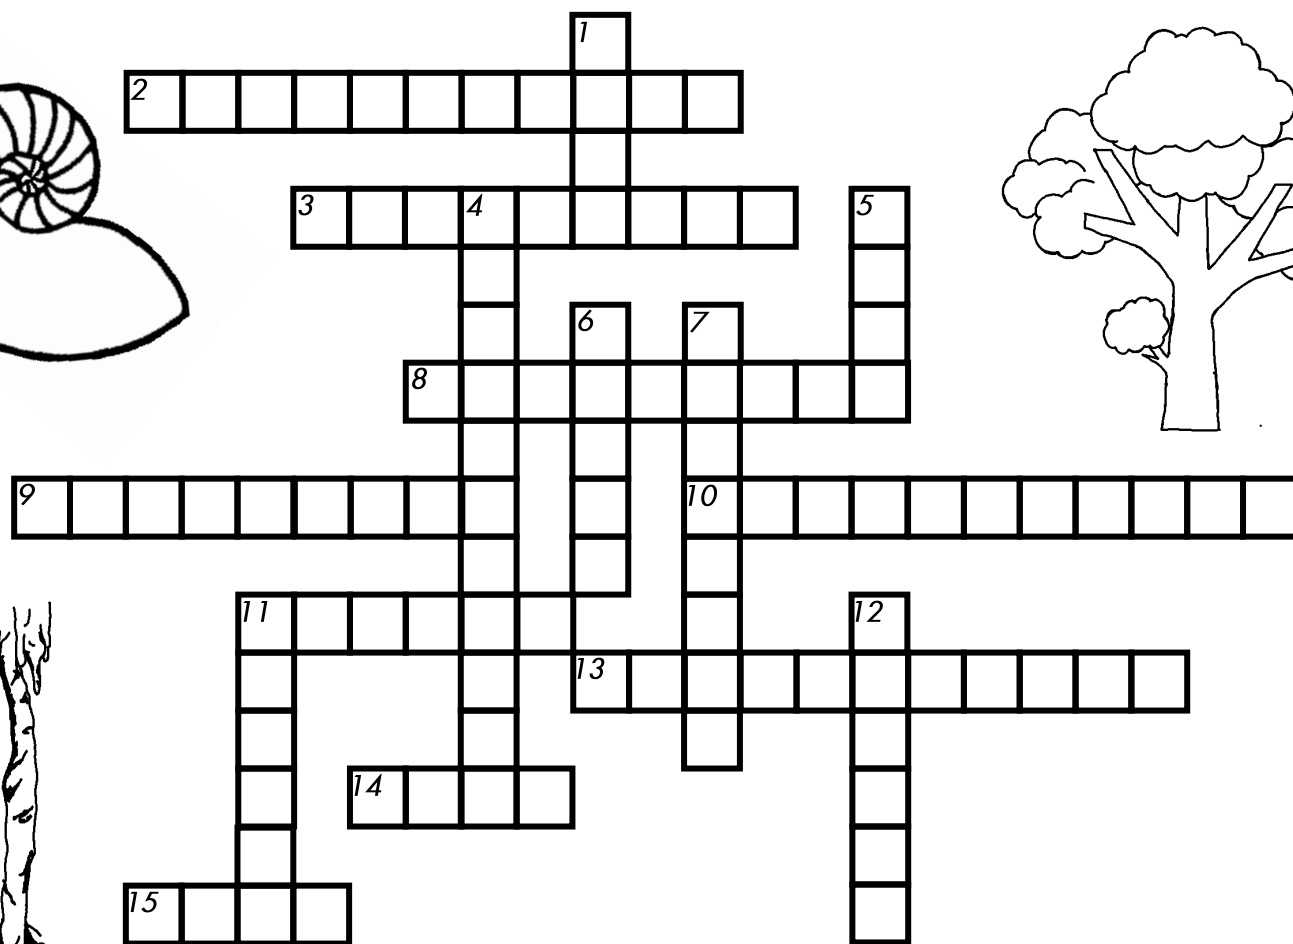

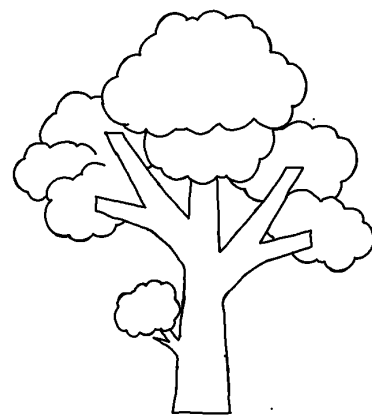

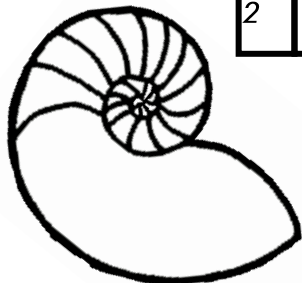

Down

1. A non-flowering plant found in the canyon that requires moisture .
4. A type of cave formation that grows on the floor.
5. A recreational area of land for people to explore and get outside.
6. A reptile that slithers around on the ground using its long, limbless, slender body.
7. An area of land managed to protect its flora, fauna, and landscape.
11. A showy part of a plant usually with colorful petals that attracts animals like butterflies to pollinate it, producing seeds.
12. A dry area or desert adapted plant with fleshy stems and a waxy coating that prevents water loss. Most have spines.

Across

2. The tallest tree in the canyon, it is deciduous, meaning it loses its needle-like leaves every fall.
3. A plant you should avoid that has three leaves and can give you a red, itchy rash.
8. Indigenous people used this rock to make fire and arrowheads.
9. Leaving behind trash anywhere on purpose, instead of throwing it away or recycling it.
10. A type of cave formation that grows on the ceiling.
11. Remains or impression of a prehistoric organism preserved in a petrified form.
13. _____ / Ashe Juniper Savanna is the first habitat you walked through at Westcave Preserve. It is home to lots of these types of trees with semi-evergreen leaves.
14. A vertebrate (an organism with a spine) that swims in the water. They breathe using special organs called gills.
15. A warm-blooded (typically) flying animal that lays eggs and has a spine, a beak, feathers, and wings.

Westcave Story: Crossword Puzzle

Down

1. A non-flowering plant found in the canyon that requires moisture .
4. A type of cave formation that grows on the floor.
5. A recreational area of land for people to explore and get outside.
6. A reptile that slithers around on the ground using its long, limbless, slender body.
7. An area of land managed to protect its flora, fauna, and landscape.
11. A showy part of a plant usually with colorful petals that attracts animals like butterflies to pollinate it, producing seeds.
12. A dry area or desert adapted plant with fleshy stems and a waxy coating that prevents water loss. Most have spines.

Across

2. The tallest tree in the canyon, it is deciduous, meaning it loses its needle-like leaves every fall.
3. A plant you should avoid that has three leaves and can give you a red, itchy rash.
8. Indigenous people used this rock to make fire and arrowheads.
9. Leaving behind trash anywhere on purpose, instead of throwing it away or recycling it.
10. A type of cave formation that grows on the ceiling.
11. Remains or impression of a prehistoric organism preserved in a petrified form.
13. _____ / Ashe Juniper Savanna is the first habitat you walked through at Westcave Preserve. It is home to lots of these types of trees with semi-evergreen leaves.
14. A vertebrate (an organism with a spine) that swims in the water. They breathe using special organs called gills.
15. A warm-blooded (typically) flying animal that lays eggs and has a spine, a beak, feathers, and wings.

