

Camp Storyteller Summer 2018

The Camp Storyteller is responsible for telling the story of summer camp to the outside world. This includes taking pictures, posting on social media and the Camp McDowell website, utilizing video and audio media, writing regular blog posts about Camp, and other duties as fit within the scope of the position. The Camp Storyteller will mostly create their own schedule and workflow but will be accountable to the Head Counselor and Summer Camp Coordinator to ensure responsibilities are being met. This is a new position for 2018, and an understanding that this position will exist on a learning curve for the organization is necessary.

Specific responsibilities and duties for the Camp Storyteller are as follows:

- serve as a model of sacramental ministry to all campers and other staff
- provide feedback and assessment for staff members and summer camp program
- act as a role model and leader for the other Summer Staff members
- fulfill Support Staff role by doing KP, pushing dishes, staffing canteen, helping with Pasture Party, and other tasks that fall within the scope of the Support Staff position
- post pictures of camp activities, camp life, and camper-centric moments to Facebook and the Camp website daily.
- post blog posts regularly with recaps of sessions, days, and big events. A blog post will be required for each opening day, each closing day, and every other day in between.
- work with session staff and program director to document and tell the story of each session's program.
- maintain the summer camp camera
- compile moments and pictures captured by other staff members to diversify what is being presented online
- take the big group picture for each session. Ensure the printing and distribution of big group picture to all campers.
- Work with volunteer and contracted photographers who could join summer camp for a session at a time.
- Communicate supply and equipment needs to Summer Camp Coordinator and Summer Camp Manager.
- Be willing to spend the summer documenting and experiencing the summer camp program from behind the lens of a camera.
- vigilantly ensure the safety and well-being of any campers while under his/her watch
- other tasks as deemed appropriate for the scope of the position

The Camp Storyteller needs to be able to:

- document moments with video and photography in a professional way.
- Utilize the Facebook page and website of Camp McDowell
- Communicate clearly and effectively the story of camp in visual and written formats
- be creative and flexible
- be a self-starter and highly motivated individual
