Relax & Renew Mother's Day Weekend

Friday, May 10

7:30-9:00PM

$30 per person ($35 door)

This Mother's Day weekend, treat Mom to the greatest gift of all – ME Time & Relaxation, or join her for some quality time for Both Of You!

Are you seeking to bring balance into your busy life, a moment of peace in a busy world, or perhaps just a path to a calmer mind and body? Modern life is full of demands and deadlines and, for many of us, feeling stressed has become a way of life. While stress can be a great motivator and help us perform well under pressure, it can become overwhelming and begin to affect our health, relationships and quality of life.

Join us for this empowering 90-minute practice to help access your body's natural ability to restore itself from stress. Bring your finest instruments; your body, your breath, and your mind and take the first step toward a truly restorative mind-body experience.

Taking time out each day to relax and renew is essential to living well. The antidote to stress is deep relaxation – a state in which there is no movement, no effort, and the brain is quiet. The balance, presence and healing you seek can take root in a restorative yoga practice. The simple act of "active relaxation" can help move you into deep rest.
