BRIEF HISTORY OF THE TIDEWATER INN

In 1712, the Talbot County Courthouse moved to what is now Easton from Oxford, Maryland. At the time of the relocation, the town of Easton was comprised of a single tavern and four homes. These early homes provided lodging along with food and drink to patrons who were tending to business in the area. In 1786, a new town was officially authorized and named Talbot but only two years later changed to Easton. In 1891, a new hotel was erected on the site of the present-day Tidewater Inn. It operated under several names, most notably the Avon Hotel until it was destroyed by a fire in 1944. The destruction of the Avon Hotel left Easton without a major hotel for several years.

In 1947, A. Johnson Grymes broke ground on the Tidewater Inn which still stands today. Due to postwar shortages of steel and plumbing, the Tidewater Inn took nearly two years to complete construction. On September 3, 1949, the Tidewater Inn opened its doors to 4,000 guests to celebrate the Grand Opening of a building that has shown to have equal significance to the town of Easton as the Talbot County Courthouse. In 1954, an addition on the north wing added an exquisite ballroom and additional guest rooms. During this time, the Tidewater Inn served as a gateway to the Eastern Shore as new automobile transportation routes increased the volume of visitors.

With the vision of a full restoration and the untimely passing of Josh Freeman, the Tidewater Inn was sold without his vision coming to fruition. In 2009, the Tidewater Inn was purchased under the direct ownership and management of John Wilson and Coastal South. With a plan to recapture the Tidewater Inn as "The Pride of the Eastern Shore", a plan was put in place to fully restore the Inn. This extensive renovation began shortly after the sale and included the total renovation of all ballrooms, public spaces, guest rooms, restaurant and an overhaul of the heating and air system.

As the Pride of the Eastern Shore, it is our mission to create a place where guests gather to celebrate life's greatest occasions and our community is enriched through our support of local programs, events and businesses.
