

THANK YOU for your interest in performing in our most Epic show, Tribal Burn!

This show happens every Spring and Fall, as a benefit for Sacred Lands, an not-for-profit that dedicates their space to honoring spiritual and creative traditions from around the world. We thank you for your willingness to participate energetically in their continuation!

Performing in this show is by approval or invitation of our staff. If you are interested in performing, please send this form/contact Karen, no less than a month prior to the show date.

Please note:

- We can not compensate performers, as this is a benefit show.
- We are able to provide a meal for the performers!
- No guests unless pre-arranged.
- You must commit to a Friday night dress rehearsal the day before the show.
- For dress rehearsal AND day of show, call time is 6pm, show at 8pm. Plan to be here until at least 10:30pm; we have a mandatory curtain call at the end of the show.
- Day of the show, any rehearsals must be finished by 5pm.
- Parking day of the show is a 2 block walk, plan on unloading and then moving your car so the parking lot is open for guests.
- There is a backstage room for changing.
- You are welcome to stand and watch the show after you are done performing.
- We provide fire safeties for the rehearsal/show.
- You provide your own fuel and props.
- Length of act: solo (3-4 minutes) group (4-6 minutes). Exceptions upon approval.

Often we have a theme for the show, and are very interested in numbers that fully embody the theme! Please be specific in the description of your act, and provide a youtube video of your performance so we can see your costume, props, etc.
