

OUR STAFF

A carefully chosen staff of professional Fast Pitch Softball instructors has been selected to teach the highest quality skills to our campers. Our staff members are comprised of current and past college coaches and players.

HEAD COACH/CAMP DIRECTOR

Judy O'Connell-Lawes

Judy Lawes head coach at Kutztown University ranks 6th among active Division II coaches. Lawes has had a winning season in 31 of her 33 seasons at KU and holds an overall record of 997-567-2. In 2013, Kutztown won its first-ever PSAC Championship and its second consecutive Atlantic Region Championship. It carried a 14-game winning streak and a perfect 12-0 mark in the postseason to the national championship game. It was the first time KU softball competed in the national title game.

ASSISTANT COACH

Liz Parkins

Liz Parkins enters her 2nd season as Kutztown University's assistant coach. Parkins had a four-year playing career at Shippensburg University. She earned All-Region honors in her sophomore year. Parkins was a utility player; spending time on the mound, at third base, and in right field. Among some of her duties Coach Parkins oversees the development of KU's pitchers as well as assisting with the program's recruiting efforts.

CAMP PHILOSOPHY

The overall camp objective is to provide each participant with a great learning experience in the fundamentals of the game of softball. Camp attendees are grouped by age and ability to work in small groups. Players will receive top level instruction from current Kutztown University coaches and current Kutztown University players. Campers will be instructed in softball fundamentals including: hitting, pitching, infield, outfield, catching, base running, sliding, diving, etc. Players will also receive instruction on various skills that will help them improve their focus, hustle, discipline, teamwork, and attitude. A combination of drills, competitions, and games make for a fun, instructional week of softball at Kutztown University's softball facility.
