COWBOY

ARCANA

Walking into Midnight Cowboy, it is not uncommon for one to feel an aura, a presence of something...beyond. Perhaps the Spirits of times long past roam the bar, perhaps it is a portent of things that yet may be. Whatever the cause, it is clear that this old saloon with its sordid history is a nexus for the metaphysical. We who tend the Spirits at Midnight Cowboy sought to tap that energy and channel it into our craft.

*In the quiet hours, the crowds of East Sixth Street long returned to their abodes, we performed a seance—an entreaty to the Spirits for their aid in creating our draughts. With shaking hands and painstaking care, we transcribed their directions into what you see before you: a glimpse into the beyond.
A touch of the Arcane.*

We hope that you enjoy Midnight Cowboy: Arcana. It has been lovingly crafted by our bartenders in concert with the spectres that call this place their home.
