

FOURTH GRADE TEACHERS

EXPERIENCE TEXAS WITH YOUR ENTIRE GRADE LEVEL!

Education in Action invites you and your 4th graders to travel to Austin and San Antonio with “Arlie the Armadillo” to experience what they're learning in social studies! In Austin students explore the Texas State Capitol with a focus on the legislative process, leadership, and Texas leaders, past and present. Then it's off to San Antonio where the story of the Texas Revolution comes to life as your young historians tour The Alamo. The best part is, we handle the details so you don't have to. Charter bus? Check. Fun, meaningful, TEKS-based curriculum for the entire day? Check. Travel with us through Texas History on a day your students won't soon forget!

PROGRAM INCLUDES:

- ★ Texas State Capitol tour
- ★ Tour of The Alamo
- ★ TEKS-based activities and pre- and post-program curriculum
- ★ Pre-program training for participating adults
- ★ Education in Action team members to coordinate all details and travel with your group throughout the entire program
- ★ Charter bus transportation, pizza lunch, and sandwich dinner
- ★ Discover Texas Field Trips t-shirt, group picture, Arlie the Armadillo trip mascot plushy, and other program souvenirs for each participant
- ★ Curriculum incentives
- ★ Coordinating educator's participation fee

“After 28 years as an educator I can confidently say that this was the best field trip I have ever been on!!!”

– Teacher, Denton ISD

“The experiences reinforced content the students learned this year. The students enjoyed every aspect of the field trip.”

– Administrator, Duncanville ISD
