3. HOW CAN I MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

Upon completion of the "What is a Leader?" lesson, you will earn the letter "L."

in

BEING A LEADER

What is a leader?

(MY definition - no right or wrong answer)

- Past U.S. Presidents, author Maya Angelou, and actors Matthew McConaughey and Emma Watson were student leaders.
- Student leaders foster a positive school culture and motivate and engage other students.
- Being a student leader teaches the importance of collaboration and teamwork.

Think of someone that is a good leader.

What do they do or say?

How do they make others feel?

What makes ME a good leader?

What do I do or say?

How do I want others to feel when I'm around them?

ENRICHMENT

Think of a time when you felt like a LEADER. Describe the situation. What did you do? What went well? What could you have done better? List your feelings.

MY VALUES

Now it's time to reflect and dive a little deeper into your values!

MOST IMPORTANT VALUES

Of the values you marked as "Very Important," list the three most important to you:

1

Why is this value important to you?

2

Why is this value important to you?

3

Why is this value important to you?

LEAST IMPORTANT VALUES

Of the values you marked as "A Little Important" or "Not Important," what are the two least important to you?

1

Why is this value least important to you?

2

Why is this value least important to you?

ENRICHMENT

Ask a parent or guardian and a friend to complete the Values Activity.

- List what you had in common?
- What were some differences?
- What surprised you?

HOW CAN I MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

MY MISSION STATEMENT

1

STEP ONE

Reflect on my values. How I can bring them to life everyday?

2

STEP TWO

What are my goals? Who do I want to be?

3

STEP THREE

Fill in the blanks to create my own mission statement:

I am _____

and I want to _____ and _____ in order to _____.

Here are some examples:

"To be brave and try new things so I can always grow personally."

"To find joy in every day and spread it to others so I can share happiness."

"To be kind and helpful to others so I can make a difference."

4

STEP FOUR

Add your personal mission statement to your Learning Journal cover.

ENRICHMENT

Share your mission statement with an adult and find out if they have a purpose statement. Help your best friend come up with their own mission statement.
