PROUD TO BE TEXAN
AUSTIN

EXPERIENCE TEXAS
WITH YOUR ENTIRE GRADE LEVEL!

Education in Action invites you and your 4th graders to travel to Austin with "Arlie the Armadillo" to experience what they're learning in social studies! As your students explore Waco's Texas Ranger Museum and the Bullock Texas State History Museum and the Texas State Capitol in Austin, they will learn about Texas history and government with a focus on the regions of Texas, the Texas Revolution, and the legislative process. The best part is, we handle the details so you don't have to. Charter bus? Check. Reservations? Check. Fun, meaningful, TEKS-based curriculum for the entire day? Check. Join us on "Proud to be Texan" for a day your students won't soon forget and to discover just exactly why Texans are so proud!

PROGRAM INCLUDES:

"The learning that takes place is phenomenal! The kids look forward to it from day one of 4th grade."
— Teacher, Allen ISD

"Great organization and great with the kids. This is an excellent program. This is our 4th year to go -- would not do it without Education in Action."
— Teacher, Joshua ISD

"I can't imagine how better to relay the information to the students. Hands-on and interactive means memorable experience."
— Teacher, Private School
