

SUPPORTING EMERGING FEMALE ARTISTS

---

Carl Freeman and his wife Virginia were ardent supporters of the arts. The Carl M. Freeman Foundation continues to support the legacy of the Freeman family by supporting emerging female artists in its new office.

Working with Shore Advisory of Washington, DC, we have curated a beautiful collection of artworks created by women artists from around the region, including Delaware, DC, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Alicia Eggert's neon installation pictured with other works of art in the CMFF library lounge.

A piece of Linling Lu's "One Hundred Melodies of Solitude" collection pictured in the CMFF lobby.