Purpose

This assignment is intended to help you learn to identify skills and competencies critical to your career success

Action Items

- 1. Research jobs in communication (or in your desired field) across multiple job search engines, professional organization job boards, university websites, and any other sources you identify. Focus on the type(s) of jobs that most interest you.
- 2. In a 250-500 word paper, respond to the following:
  - 1. What types of jobs did you target?
  - 2. What job search engines / sites did you search?
  - 3. What did you identify as the most important professional skills needed to qualify for the jobs you targeted?
- 3. Submit your work by the due date indicated.

Grading Criteria

Your work will be assessed according to the associated rubric.

Part 3: Personal Development: Analyze Skills

Purpose

This assignment is intended to help you learn to identify gaps in your own skills and competencies.

Action Items

- 1. Compare the self-assessment you conducted in Module 1 (Personal Development: VIA Strengths), with the summary/analysis of professional skills you need to develop to qualify for the jobs you researched in Module 2 (Personal Development: Career Research).
- 2. Respond to the following in a 250-500 word paper:
  - 1. What gaps exist between the skills needed for the jobs you researched and your current skills?
  - 2. What skills are most important for you to develop in order to be successful in a job search?
  - 3. Select 2-3 skills/competencies to work on for your own professional development.
- 3. Submit your work by the due date indicated.

Grading Criteria

Your work will be assessed according to the associated rubric.

Part 4: Personal Development Plan

Purpose

This assignment is intended to help you learn to create your own professional development plan.

Action Items

- 1. Identify your professional development goals:
  - o What job(s) did you target in your Module 2 Career Research assignment?

- o What 2-3 skills/competencies did you identify in your Module 3 Analyze Skills assignment?
- 2. Identify potential sources to meet your professional development needs:
  - Explore professional associations and other organizations that offer opportunities for professional development. For communication professionals, explore these resources (also listed in your readings) and any others you identify:
    - Public Relations Society of America
    - The Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals
    - 10 Communication Associations to Build a Professional Network
    - Best Conferences for Strategic Communicators
    - 8 professional development goals for creating a bright PR future
  - Identify workshops, webinars, articles, internships, networking opportunities, etc. that you could participate in/read/explore.
- 3. Create a professional development plan in a Word document that addresses these questions:
  - o What job(s) and skills are you targeting?
  - o What professional development activities will you implement?
  - What is your timeline for implementing those activities?
  - Optional: You are encouraged to join one or more professional organizations. As a student, you typically qualify for a reduced membership rate, and you will gain access to additional resources and information.
- 4. Share your top two professional development strategies or ideas with your classmates. Create a video of yourself talking about these ideas (2-4 minutes in length) and post the video, or a link to it, on the 4-2: Personal Development Discussion thread.
