OFFICE OF UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSIONS

Private Education at Public School Price

Seton Hall is pleased to announce that students enrolling directly from high school in September 2016 can enroll at Seton Hall, one of the nation's leading Catholic universities, with a $22,500 tuition reduction – making a Seton Hall education as affordable as a public university.

To qualify for this rate students must:

- Have a minimum of a 28 ACT composite score or combined 1250 on the critical reading and math sections of the SAT with not less than 550 on either section;
- Be in the top 10 percent of their high school class; and
- Apply by December 15.

In addition, students who file the FAFSA may be eligible for additional need-based financial aid. This unique program is open to students from all states. No special application is required. Students who apply to Seton Hall and meet the academic criteria will automatically receive this tuition reduction.

Terms and Conditions

- Open to first-time, full-time freshman entering directly from high school in September 2016 (Does not apply to transfer students).
- Tuition reduction is $22,500 per year.
- This rate will remain in effect for four years (8 semesters), provided that the student maintains a 3.0 GPA, earns required credits annually and maintains continuous full-time enrollment.
- May only be applied to tuition for up to 18 credits per semester.
- Excludes graduate students, non-Seton Hall enrollment, ESL, non-matriculated enrollment and study abroad.
- Applies only to fall and spring on-campus enrollment and does not include summer enrollment.

"This initiative reflects Seton Hall's commitment to serving our community and putting a high quality, personalized education within reach of more students and their families. In this way we make a first-class, private Catholic college experience as affordable and accessible to students as a public university, with the added benefits of smaller classes, close mentoring faculty relationships and a 14:1 student-to-teacher ratio."

The Bottom Line

Receive a tuition reduction of $22,500 per year.

"This program rewards the efforts of high-achieving students, allowing them to attend one of the nation's leading Catholic universities without the added burden or worry about financing their education. This program eliminates the worry for parents and allows them to know the bottom line cost up front. The program assures parents that their son or daughter will receive a quality private education from a prestigious university in a smaller, more nurturing environment where they can thrive and build a foundation for a successful future without an extensive loan burden."
