

Game Makers: A Playful Way to Enhance Presentation Practice

By Reid McLain

Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, South Korea

Why Games?

Why Games?

- A way to practice risk, without high stakes.

My Favorite Assignment 2022

Why Games?

- A way to practice risk, without high stakes.
- Practice decision making and negotiation skills

My Favorite Assignment 2022

Why Games?

- A way to practice risk, without high stakes.
- Practice decision making and negotiation skills
- Practice presentation, facilitation, and leadership skills

My Favorite Assignment 2022

Why Games?

My Favorite Assignment 2022

- # My Favorite Assignment 2022
- Games are engaging and fun!

What is “Game Makers?”

- Create a speaking game with rules.

My Favorite Assignment 2022

What is “Game Makers?”

- Create a speaking game with rules.
- Brainstorm the rules for the game

What is “Game Makers?”

- Create a speaking game with rules.
- Brainstorm the rules for the game
- Develop and plan a group presentation

What is “Game Makers?”

- Create a speaking game with rules.
- Brainstorm the rules for the game
- Develop and plan a group presentation
- Present an instructional speech

What is “Game Makers?”

- Create a speaking game with rules.
- Brainstorm the rules for the game
- Develop and plan a group presentation
- Present an instructional speech
- Lead the class in playing the game.

Guidelines

1 -Brainstorm and Design a Game:

- Through discussion and negotiation create a game

1 -Brainstorm and Design a Game:

- Through discussion and negotiation create a game
- Games must incorporate a prop (dice, cards etc.)

1 -Brainstorm and Design a Game:

- Through discussion and negotiation create a game
- Games must incorporate a prop (dice, cards etc.)
- Rules should be easy enough to teach in 5 to 6 minutes.

1 -Brainstorm and Design a Game:

- Through discussion and negotiation create a game
- Games must incorporate a prop (dice, cards etc.)
- Rules should be easy enough to teach in 5 to 6 minutes.
- Games should be new, inspiration is okay, but copying other games directly is not.

2 - Outline and plan the presentation

- Make a speech outline

2 - Outline and plan the presentation

- Make a speech outline
- Create any documents or handouts that you think will help teach the class your game.

2 - Outline and plan the presentation

- Make a speech outline
- Create any documents or handouts that you think will help teach the class your game.
- Each group member should plan to speak.

2 - Outline and plan the presentation

- Make a speech outline
- Create any documents or handouts that you think will help teach the class your game.
- Each group member should plan to speak.
- Create and use visual aids - PowerPoint, Videos, etc (Visual aids should be easily seen - for example rolling dice.)

3 - Present and Facilitate The Game

- The presentation is in two phases

My Favorite Assignment 2022

3 - Present and Facilitate The Game

- The presentation is in two phases
- Instructional Stage – teach the class the rules

3 - Present and Facilitate The Game

- The presentation is in two phases
- Instructional Stage – teach the class the rules
- Facilitation Stage – lead the class in playing the game.

3 - Present and Facilitate The Game

- The presentation is in two phases
- Instructional Stage – teach the class the rules
- Facilitation Stage – lead the class in playing the game.

(For second language learners, language of play should be established.)

Follow-up and Conclusion

Follow-up and Conclusion

- Have a de-brief about successes and challenges with both the speech and facilitation

My Favorite Assignment 2022

Follow-up and Conclusion

- Have a de-brief about successes and challenges with both the speech and facilitation
- Members write a reflective journal (or record a reflective video) about their experience presenting and facilitating

Follow-up and Conclusion

- Have a de-brief about successes and challenges with both the speech and facilitation
- Members write a reflective journal (or record a reflective video) about their experience presenting and facilitating
- Optional: Peer-Feedback from others to help find encouragement and recognize blindspots.

GUESS WHAT?

<The dice of fate>

Roll the dice 3 times, and make a sentence with words which start w/ the alphabets.

① ② ③

close
sto

③
Peter Hungo
his le

Trailgating

WHAT IS GOING ON

LAH
PLAY
AH

1. Sep

Game Makers: A Playful Way to Enhance Presentation Practice

@ReidMcLain

Reid McLain

Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, South Korea