- vi. As authorized by and as necessary to comply with laws relating to worker's compensation or similar programs established by the law.
- vii. Whenever required to do so by law.
- viii. To a Coroner or Medical Examiner when necessary. Examples include: identifying a deceased person or to determine a cause of death.
- ix. To Funeral Directors to carry out their duties
- x. To organ procurement organizations or other entities engaged in procurement, banking or transplantation of organs for the purpose of tissue donation and transplant.
- xi. To notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative or another person responsible for the patient's care of the patient's location or general condition.
- xii. To a correctional institution or its agents if a patient is or becomes an inmate of such an institution when necessary for the patient's health or the health and safety of others.
- xiii. When necessary to prevent a serious threat to the patient's health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person.
- xiv. As required by military command authorities when the patient is a member of the armed forces and to appropriate military authority about foreign military personnel.
- xv. To authorized officials for intelligence, counterintelligence and other national security activities authorized by law.
- xvi. To authorized federal officials so they may provide protection to the president, other authorized persons or foreign heads of state or to conduct special investigations.
- xvii. To a government authority, such as social service or protective services agency, if Super V Drug Store reasonably believes the patient to be a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence but only to the extent required by law, if the patient agrees to the disclosure or if the disclosure is allowed by law and we believe it is necessary to prevent serious harm to the patient or to someone else or the law enforcement or public official that is to receive the report represents that it is necessary and will not be used against the patient.

3. Authorized Use and Disclosure

- a. Use or disclosure other than those previously listed or as permitted or required by law, will not be made unless we obtain your written Authorization in advance. You may revoke any such Authorization in writing at any time. Upon receipt of a revocation, we will cease using or disclosing protected health information about you unless we have already taken action based on your Authorization.

4. More Stringent Laws

- a. Some states may have laws that are more stringent than HIPAA. Please refer to the end of the Notice for the laws that may apply.

Section B: Patient's Rights

1. Restriction Requests

- a. You have a right to request a restriction be placed on the use and disclosure of your protected health information for purposes of carrying out treatment, payment or health care operations. Restrictions may include requests for not submitting claims to your insurance or third-party payer or limitations on which persons may be considered personal representatives.
