Clevelander Barry Minoff Establishes a New Kind of Legacy

You might know Barry Minoff as a Hollywood actor and producer. If you ever do business in Cleveland, you may also know him as a business leader. A few may know him as a board member at the Rock Hall of Fame.

In October 2018, Barry established himself in a new kind of Hall of Fame (in our book anyway!).

Barry and his family pledged an eight-figure gift to the University Hospitals of Cleveland in honor of the wonderful care they have received over the years.

GOLD Support Pays Off with Peace of Mind

You know that helpless feeling of seeing someone you love in trouble and not be able to do anything about it?

Terrible, right?

Maybe that's why many of you say the best part about being a GOLD supporter is the ability to extend Healthnetwork access beyond your immediate family.

When Rori Offenberg heard that her niece was feeling anxious after doctors had found what could be pre-cancerous cells, she did not have to endure that uncomfortable feeling of being a helpless bystander. Instead because of her status as a GOLD supporter, she knew exactly what to do. With one quick call, she connected her niece to Healthnetwork. Julie Brasfield, Clinical Manager took things from there.

Now on the other side of the harrowing experience, Rori's niece, Stephanie Schwartz, expresses her gratitude and relief in HER STORY, HERE
