THE FREEMAN STAGE

Remember Your
WEEKLY DOSE OF ARTS!

As part of our Arts Access Initiative, The Freeman Stage is providing a weekly list of grade-appropriate arts/cultural enrichment opportunities to support area schools, parents and other family members in maintaining a well-rounded educational curriculum for students.

ENJOY THESE GRADE-LEVEL ARTS ACTIVITIES!

GRADES K-2

Create a whimsical jellyfish refrigerator magnet this week through "Whimsical Masterpieces at Home," a virtual video series of art lessons using materials that you can find around your house! Join our partner artist John Donato each Wednesday on The Freeman Stage Facebook page. Here is the LINK.

Essential Question: What encourages you to say, “You’re welcome?”

GRADES 3-5

Time for more “Some Good News” (SGN)! We’re bringing John Krasinski back again to share SGN in the community. Remember John’s message, “You are the good news!” Here is the LINK.

Essential Question: How could you create some good news in your community?

Did you know?

The word ‘Moana’ means ocean or large body of water in Hawaiian and Maori, a Polynesian language.

GRADES 6-8

Life on earth, it’s a beautiful place and always has a story to tell! Get inspired with visual artist, Oliver Jeffers, as he performs a Ted Talk, “An ode to living on Earth.” Here is the LINK.

Essential Question: How would you explain to someone what it’s like to be a human being living on Earth in the 21st century?

GRADES 9-12

THE ARTS ACCESS INITIATIVE FROM THE FREEMAN STAGE

The Arts Access Initiative is a program of The Freeman Stage, which provides K-12 students, residents and families of the Delmarva region year-round access to high quality, diverse arts experiences at no cost. This includes our Arts in Education program, which has touched 122,948 students in the region -- from Pre-K through Grade 12 -- since its inception in 2008.
