The Arts Access Initiative is a program of The Freeman Stage, which provides K-12 students, residents and families of the Delmarva region year-round access to high quality, diverse arts experiences at no cost. This includes our Arts in Education program, which has touched 122,948 students in the region -- from Pre-K through Grade 12 -- since its inception in 2008.

Essential Question: How can you show kindness and surprise someone in a positive way?

Essential Question: How can you spread joy to others?

Essential Question: What song brings hope and positive feelings to you?

Remember Your WEEKLY DOSE OF ARTS!

As part of our Arts Access Initiative, The Freeman Stage is providing a weekly list of grade-appropriate arts/cultural enrichment opportunities to support area schools, parents and other family members in maintaining a well-rounded educational curriculum for students.
