

LMFT Supervision in Texas

I'm excited to announce that
I have room for two (2)
LMFT Associates!

What I can offer you:

- Case conceptualization and cutting edge approaches to work confidently on a relational, cognitive, emotional, somatic/nervous system and emotional level with clients.
- I have master level training in healing complex trauma to help you become an effective trauma-informed therapist.
- Help with ethical, clinical and countertransference challenges with reliable access to me.*
- Mentorship in your development as a therapist and space to find your style, integrated approach and voice.
- Private practice guidance. I can share how I built and sustain a steady case load of clients.
- Support with therapeutic presence, self-care and boundaries.
- And more!
- $375/month
