Happy 4th of July!

Our trip to INATS last month was fun and productive. We visited several vendors and were able to restock specialty areas in the store with new books, card decks, incense, oils & sprays, statues, textiles, altar & home accessories, colorful feather fans, gridding tools and clothing, to name a few. Some of the new items we'll be bringing home are beautifully laser-etched selenite, labradorite and Palo Santo pieces, and large 3D suncatchers.

A special shout out to our friends at Spirit Quest, a mineral and metaphysical store in Spring, Texas. If you find your self in that area be sure to stop in and say "Hi" to Chris & Ginger and check out their collection of great minerals.

July promises to be a full month for us. We would love to see you and at the Metaphysical Fair at the Holiday Inn, July 7th & 8th and then again at our booth in the Body, Mind and Spirit Expo at Palmer Auditorium, July 21st & 22nd., where we will be offering special Chakra Aura Reading Packages at discount prices. I will be giving lectures at both events, so hope to see you there.

I was very fortunate to get the opportunity to go on a mining expedition this weekend in the mountains outside of Tucson, Az. The mines in this area were originally dug for their metal content including copper, silver, gold, lead and molybdenum. I was able to see the fault lines down into the mine shafts and see where water carrying minerals produced calcite, quartz, chrysocolla, azurite, and other well-known minerals. What a great time!

Hope everyone has a fun and safe Fourth of July celebration.

Blessings to all,
Karen and the staff

The Treasure Tome: A Trove of Knowledge

Hotter than July

(inspired by Stevie Wonder)

by Folade Speaks

We are changing rapidly. Our planet is changing, our personalities are morphing, quantum leap in individual spiritual growth is becoming norm. In some cases, we have more patience with some, and suddenly - absolutely none for others. What used to work simply doesn't anymore. Belief systems are changing. We are grieving our old selves, shedding comfort zones, setting the baggage on the curb, letting go of the recycled loves that have enabled and stunted our growth. We are feeling the initial sting from saying no more when things don't serve our best selves.

Our new relentless need to declare our boundaries, be authentic, and ration our daily quota of giving beyond what's necessary has us out here singing, I ain't gonna stand for it! To save myself. Hear me- To save myself... I have developed these saviors that keep me still when there's a storm...

Love Nature's Treasures

I purchased a rose quartz from Nature's Treasure's, that I received faster than I expected and got over the moon when I realized that on to the quality of the item and the fast shipping, there was also two nice gifts. I have to say that I have never been looked after with so much care by any other company. I strongly advise NATURE'S TREASURES.
