Happy Mother's Day!

Greetings all and Happy Cinco de Mayo,

What a busy time we had last month. I hope everyone had a nice Easter celebration. Our Easter Egg hunt on Saturday was booked full and it looks like next year we will be expanding so more families will be able to share in our fun. Our Tarot and Oracle Expo was such a success that all vendors have already signed up to return next year plus several more on a waiting list. Can't wait to see what next year's Expo will bring us. Thanks to all who visited us on Earth Day. Because of you, we were able to donate even more this year to the Rainforest Partnership supporting their efforts in helping to keep our planet greener.

A shout out to all our new customers and our fellow booth vendors at the Waco Gem and Mineral show this past weekend. Everyone was most gracious and helpful with our first time needs and we really enjoyed meeting so many new people. Over all, a much enjoyed first trip to Waco. That same weekend we hosted our first jewelry trunk sale with Starborn Creations and learned trunk sales could be a great way to introduce you, our customers, to some of our more exclusive vendors with specialty pieces and products so you can see and have the opportunity to buy one-of-a-kind exclusive products. How exciting!

This month, let's be sure to share the love by remembering all who gave their lives in battle so we can continue to progress in our own personal growth and developments. Also, remember the second most important day we celebrate every year is Mother's Day, on Sunday, the 13th of this month. We all have a Mother to celebrate and love because we all have Mother Earth to cradle, love and protect us, so embrace love on this day and be sure to share with others.

Blessings to all,
Karen and the staff

Emerald

Emerald, the green variety of Beryl, is called the "Stone of Successful Love". Emerald opens and nurtures the Heart Chakra because its soothing energy provides freshness and vitality to the spirit. A stone of inspiration and infinite patience, it embodies unity, compassion and unconditional love. Emerald promotes friendship, balance between partners, and is particularly known for providing domestic bliss, contentment and loyalty. It was dedicated in the ancient world to the goddess Venus for its ability to insure security in love.

Emerald is also a stone of great vision and intuition, associated with the eyes and sight, long believed to foretell future events and reveal one's truths. It is a stone of wisdom, enhancing memory and increasing mental clarity. It combines intelligence with discernment, and brings to the conscious mind what is unconsciously known. Emerald also increases focus and intent, activating psychic abilities and opening clairvoyance.

May we give thanks for our Mothers, for the mother archetypes, the Goddesses, and ever creating, sustainable essence of the Supreme Mother, Gaia. If you are a Mother, give thanks for yourselves, and your bundles of joy, how tiny, or how wise they are. Let us give thanks for the Village of Mothers who mother us, whether they are Ancestors, grandmothers, sisters, wives, aunts, mentors, friends, doulas and midwives, even the mothering of our children's tight hugs. These women are built of nurturing, uplifting, giving, protecting, implanting self love and wisdom. They are dream sewers, seeds, manifestors and shamans. They are healers who restore us. As the saying goes, as above, so below. Tucked beneath the soil, in caves, the ocean and rivers, are the bones of Gaia, and they contain the essence of the motherhood lineage.

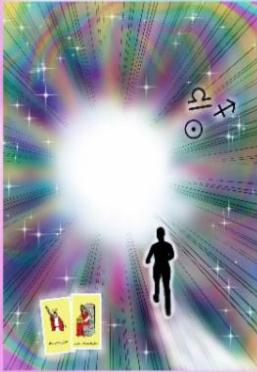

Here, I will uplift a few crystals that come to mind in the spirit of mothering characteristics.

Silica is the key component to agate formation since it belongs to the quartz family made up of SiO<sub>2</sub>. Because of their beauty and durability, agates have been used since the Neolithic as tools, jewelry, tableware and decor for thousands of years. Although agate has been used for ages, new world agates have only been mined recently and many varieties are mined out.
