Happy Halloween!

We're back from our annual Denver buying trip and busy processing all of our new inventory so that you can view it at our 12th Annual Denver Truck Show. I'll be sending out the information flyer next week to give you a sneak peek of what all we found, so watch for it in your e-mail. Diversity ran rampant this year with not only restocking of our best sellers, but also new discoveries including LED lit natural crystal points, shiva shapes and altar bowls in various new minerals, yoni eggs, large fulgurites, portable Vita Jewel Water Elixir carriers and gold-coated Kyanite to name a few. Smokey Quartz seemed to be the stone of the show this year, so prepare yourself to see numerous options for purchasing that haven't been available in the past. All in all, a most productive trip with almost two times more inventory purchased this year than last year. Can't wait to see you at the Truck Sale! Be sure to visit early for first pick of those one-of-a-kind treasures.

As you can see below, we're starting our busy season so look for Nature's Treasures at numerous venues around town and throughout the great state of Texas. We're here to help educate and provide Mother Nature's beauties for everyone to experience and enjoy.

Wishing everyone a safe and fun-filled Halloween. Let your alter ego and personality come through on this "Vegas in a night" holiday. Be somebody you always wanted to be. Visit that past life experience and shine on..

Blessings,
Karen and the staff

10 Reasons Why Kyanite is an Essential Stone for Healing and Spiritual Growth

by Adrienne Goff

<https://crystalsbynature.com/blogs/news/10-reasons-why-kyanite-is-an-essential-stone-for-healing-and-spiritual-growth>

Do you ever wish you had a magic wand? Personally, I'd like one that can poof away unpleasant things, such as bills, anxiety, and cellulite. My ideal magic wand would also bestow metaphysical superpowers and beam me onto friendly starships. Though I have yet to find a magic wand like in the storybooks, the crystal kingdom has a version that comes close-the Kyanite wand.

Kyanite is a high vibration stone that has a striated structure, which means that it has parallel grooves or recesses down the length of the stone. These striations act as amplifying channels that transmit higher frequencies of light into the human auric field. Kyanite literally acts like a wand that can deliver refined, spiritual energy for clearing, healing, balance, activation, and upgrade. If you could only have one healing crystal in your collection, Kyanite would be an excellent, versatile choice. Here are ten reasons why:

1. Kyanite clears blockages and corrects misalignments in all chakras, meridians, and subtle bodies.

If you want to be healthy, vital, and spiritually connected, it all starts with your bio-energetic system. Blockages in the chakras and meridians can lead to health issues and stagnation on all levels. Luckily, Kyanite is versatile and can be used over any chakra or meridian point to clear it. Kyanite also moves the energy centers into proper alignment, as well as the different layers of the auric field. Working with it can ensure that your entire energy system is flowing and functioning properly.

The opal symbolizes faithfulness and confidence. The word comes from the Latin opalus, meaning "precious jewel". Necklaces with opals set in them were worn to repel evil and to protect eyesight. Opals also represent hope, creativity and innocence. Opals strengthen memory, and also increase the will to live. This stone has been used to ease childbirth and alleviate PMS.

Tourmaline is found in a wide variety of colors from black to bluish-black, brown, yellow, blue to neon blue, lime to dark forest green, red and reddish purple, yellow, pink, and colorless.

Tourmaline is the official birthstone for October as adopted by the American National Association of Jewelers in 1912. It is also the accepted gem for the 8th wedding anniversary.

Fall is the season of colors, so it is fitting that tourmaline is found in all colors. According to one ancient legend, opal contains all colors because it traveled along a rainbow and gathered all of the rainbow's colors.

The Treasure Tome: A Trove of Knowledge

Check out the October, 2017 issue of Austin All Natural magazine for an article written by our Events Director: Folade Speaks.

Here is an excerpt:

"With energies and ascension symptoms escalating at quantum speed, people are growing increasingly empathic and feeling sensitivities they might have been oblivious to just a year ago. With half a dozen hurricanes, earthquakes, having survived seven planets in Mercury Retrograde simultaneously plus two eclipses, emotional water and erratic air energies are looming in our atmosphere. It is essential at these times to activate self-care and guarding techniques. Along with salt baths, grounding exercises, smudging and just staying in the house with all the dead bolts locked and ignoring your phone calls, here are some crystals that might help release some anxiety and repel aggressive energy. May the Force be with you and don't forget to sew these crystals in your Halloween costume."

Blue Kyanite

"Blue Kyanite is a repellent to energy that is not of the purest vibration, it won't even soak up negative energy. Like Scolecite, think of Kyanite as a protective nurturer to the wearer and a facilitator for group cooperation."
