Happy Easter Everyone!

I think it's fair to say most understand the religious celebration of Easter, but did you know that the bunny and egg both are ancient symbols of fertility and new life? This may lend some cause to their sharing in the Easter celebrations. Come celebrate Easter with us and reconnect to the earth's energy by walking and sitting among some of nature's most beautiful gifts to us. You can recharge while watching the kids find eggs filled with stones and jewelry and surprises, but I promise NO CANDY! We have so much fun with surprise boxes during our Customer Appreciation Weekend in November that we decided this year, on Easter Sunday, we will have a basket full of colorful Easter Eggs stuffed with surprises and discount coupons for all your purchases that day. You won't even have to hunt for the eggs, since they will be right as you walk in the door.

I want to thank everyone who came to see us at our 11th Annual Tucson Truck Sale. All the new product is now being placed on the floor and in the Rock Yard so the store is stuffed with new product to see. Be sure to visit soon before all the best pieces get taken. So many new homes for special pieces and lots of new faces from the SXSW visitors. Remember to keep in touch everyone with crystalsbynature.com. If you haven't picked up your special order yet be sure to come by soon. We hope everyone has a blessed Easter and the whole month.

Many Blessings
Karen Richards
& the Nature's Treasures Staff

April's Gemstone

Diamond

The diamond, a symbol of everlasting love, was once thought to bring courage. In Sanskrit, the diamond is called "vajra," which also means lightning; in Hindu mythology, vajra was the weapon of Indra, the king of gods. The diamond is the symbol of purity, innocence, strength, and courage. The beauty and brilliance of a diamond is unparalleled.

Diamonds amplify other energies in strength and duration, especially those found in other crystals. It is a stone that is thought to never require recharging. It's perfect for blocking electromagnetic stress and for protection against cell phone emanations, because it purifies and detoxifies all of the body's systems, rebalances metabolism, and builds up stamina, and strength. It also helps in treating allergies, chronic illnesses and glaucoma. Diamond have been used by some healers to treat dizziness and vertigo.

Nature's Treasures hosted a pleasant educational tour the first week of March for home school group, "Growing Together".

Girl Scout Troop 1713 stopped by Nature's Treasures the first weekend of March to get a guided tour by our resident geology specialist, Michael J. Kallstrom, before headed out to do some geocaching.

Maplewood Elementary organized a series of field trips towards the end of March for their 3rd grade class to get an educational walk-through of our Retail Showroom. This field trip included an introduction to rock types, the rock cycle, fossils, and even a geode cracking demonstration!

CrystalsByNature - Introducing Paraiba Kyanite

Introducing Paraiba Kyanite -- a newly discovered Kyanite variation from the Paraiba Basin in northern Brazil. As a form of Kyanite, this crystal is more than just good looks -- it is one of three, aluminosilicate polymorphs used by geologists to determine the pressure-temperature conditions under which metamorphic rocks form.

With a striated appearance along its length and a naturally bladed crystal habit, Paraiba Kyanite's delicate appearance belies its strong powers. Paraiba Kyanite's vibrant, almost neon, colors cause it to vibrate at a higher frequency, which gives this crystal the ability to unlock psychic and telepathic powers while enhancing intuition. It's special color promotes an even greater peaceful vibration than usually characterized by other Kyanites.

Connected to the Angel of Joy, Paraiba Kyanite aids those trying to overcome fear and sensitivities. It is particularly helpful for those suffering from Agoraphobia. By increasing one's ability to tolerate others (patience), while simultaneously reducing stress from busy and crowded environments, Paraiba Kyanite crystals encourages all to venture into bustling throngs. It's the perfect crystal for those easily overwhelmed by cities and crowds.

The Treasure Tome: A Trove of Knowledge

Chrysocolla: The Glue that Holds Us Together

By Michael J. Kallstrom, MS

The name Chrysocolla comes from the two Greek words chrysos, meaning "gold" and kolla, meaning "glue". Why would a stone be named after gold when it's quite obviously a blue-green color? Well, to know the answer to that we have to go back in time to 300 BC when ancient civilizations mined this copper ore mineral to create solder for gold. Therefore this stone was literally "gold glue" because it was the primary component used to bond pieces of gold together.

Chrysocolla combines hues of meadow green and sky blue due to the presence of copper (Cu) in its atomic structure  $(\text{Cu,Al})_2\text{H}_2\text{Si}_2\text{O}_5(\text{OH})_4 \cdot n(\text{H}_2\text{O})$ . Due to this coloration, Chrysocolla can be considered a combination of the feminine earth and water energies associated with our living planet. A stone of compassion, Chrysocolla instills a sense of nurturing as well as a desire to care for Mother Nature. According to "The Secrets of Crystals" by Shani Toder, Chrysocolla also helps us resolve emotional pain and renew our emotional resources when in chronic, high-stress environments. By allowing us to communicate our emotions in a clear and grounded manner, this stone alleviates some of the major stressors experienced between parent & child or individuals in negotiations. This stone also helps us tap into the Divine Feminine in order to balance one's physical (represented by earth & embodying strength) and emotional (represented by water & embodying empathy) bodies. Many claim that the turquoise colored jewelry worn by Cleopatra was in fact Chrysocolla and that she carried this stone everywhere she went to aid in diplomatic endeavors and to pacify violence.

Based on the properties of Chrysocolla to instill nurturing, compassion and empathy, as well as aid in communication and diplomacy, it only seems appropriate that a mantra to attribute to Chrysocolla is none other than "the Golden Rule." Whether you know this phrase in its more modern version "do unto others as you would have them do unto you," or its more ancient roots "do not do unto others what you do not want done unto you," the point is learning empathy and cohesion. We are all part of a greater whole and oneness that extends beyond our humanity to Mother Earth as a whole.
