

Author Submissions for Review

· Terms and Conditions ·

Authors may submit books for consideration at the store's discretion. Submission does not guarantee review, placement, or sale.

Unsolicited Submissions

All unsolicited books are submitted entirely at the author's expense. The store assumes no responsibility for loss, damage, theft, or compensation related to unsolicited materials.

Retrieval of Submitted Materials

Any book submitted for review that is not retrieved within six (6) months of drop off shall be deemed abandoned and will become the property of the store. The store may donate, discard, or otherwise dispose of such materials at its sole discretion.

No Financial Obligation

The store assumes no responsibility for payment, compensation, or monies owed in connection with unsolicited submissions.

Prior Consignments

The store is not responsible for any financial reimbursement, outstanding balances, or payments related to consignments or submissions made prior to January 2025.

Self-Published Titles

Any self-published titles accepted by the store must be governed by a written agreement executed in advance and paid in full prior to placement. No exceptions will be made.

Additional Purchases

If the store elects to purchase additional copies, the author will be contacted directly by the store. Authors are asked not to solicit the store regarding further purchases, inventory levels, or advance copies.

Right of Refusal

The store reserves the right to refuse or discontinue self-published titles at any time due to space limitations, inventory considerations, or the store's commitment to maintaining a curated and timeless selection.
