

Blue Room's Hot Topics

December 2020

Are you on the verge of screaming? Do you see your dreams of a Hallmark holiday season falling apart due to frequent child behavior meltdowns? Well we have the perfect article for you on why these situations happen during this time of year and ways to prevent or handle them!

Take a look...

Nightmares Before Christmas: Avoiding Holiday Tantrums

Also, holiday time is the perfect time to teach young children about others' beliefs, traditions and cultures surrounding the world. Holidays like Hanukkah, Kwanza and Milad un Nabi are examples of holidays that are not so traditional here in Austin. Below is a link to an article highlighting how parents and teachers can team together to teach the importance of understanding others during this holiday time. We will conclude the month by having our famous Christmas Pageant. The Blue Room will be the choir this year, so we will make sure to have our singing voices primed and ready. We are all looking forward to this special event that makes our school community so unique.

Can you believe the Holidays are upon us? What a joy this semester has been learning and growing together! Our first half of the school year will culminate with our Christmas Pageant which is a very special tradition here at St George's. Be prepared for a heartwarming adventure and a few tears of joy as you experience this sweet event!
