

F R I D A Y	Objective: Infants will practice appreciative listening Procedure: We will read a fall themed book from the resource room Materials: fall themed story book	Objective: Infants will practice understanding object permanence Procedure: Shake a rattle and then place it under a scarf to see if the children can uncover it. Materials: rattle and scarf	Objective: Infants will practice purposeful listening Procedure: We will sing Rock a Bye Baby as we rock and cuddle the dolls Materials: dolls	Objective- Infants will be introduced to different weights of objects Procedure- We will conduct a sink or float "Thanksgiving Dinner" activity wherein we will place vegetables in a bin filled with water, and encourage the children to pick out the vegetables and feel how certain objects are heavier than others (example: a carrot vs. a bell pepper) Materials- sensory bin, water, bell pepper, tomato, sweet potato, garlic, onion	Objective- Use toys that can be transferred from one hand to another Procedure- We will place corn kernel shakers in the classroom and encourage the children to shake them when we are singing songs. Materials- small water bottles, corn kernels	Objective- Infants will practice exploring Toddler playground Procedure- we will encourage the infants to roam around the toddler playground by placing walkers in front of them for them to climb up on, and encouraging them to climb up the stairs in order to go down the slide Materials: walkers, buggy
	Outdoors: Continue to explore toddler playground Individual:					