

CANJE

PRIVATE EVENTS

ABOUT US

Named after the national bird of Guyana, Canje features Caribbean cuisine spanning from Jamaica to Puerto Rico, exploring the many expressions of flavors across the region. The passion project of Food & Wine's Best New Chef (and Guyanese native) Tavel Bristol-Joseph, Canje offers a modern take on authentic dishes alongside one of the city's best cocktail programs.

Tucked away on the East Side, the stunning space features a mix of rustic tile, bold graphics, lush greenery, and floating orchids. The dining room can hold 62 for a seated dinner. For standing cocktail events, we can clear the space of furniture almost entirely, allowing you to host a free-flow event throughout the entire space for up to 100 guests.

Our location on sixth street makes it easy for your guests to continue the party after dinner, and enjoy Austin's famous East Side bars.

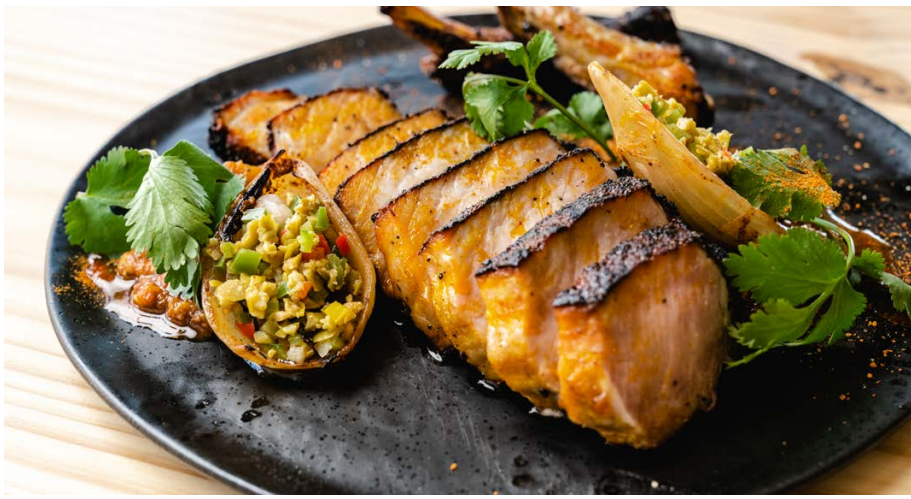

RESTAURANT BUYOUT

Experience a full buyout two ways: A family-style feast for groups up to 62, we welcome guests with cocktails and bites in the Canje Private Space, then enjoy a seated dinner in the main dining room. For ultimate party vibes, we'll remove almost all the furniture in the space, set up spreads of food, pass bites and cocktails all night, and crank up the vibes. We can host up to 100 for a Canje Party, and always recommend adding a local DJ on the patio to keep things Wah Gwaan.
