INFORMATION.
PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

In accordance with the requirement of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”), Medicine Shoppe and Bellevue Home Medical Services, Inc., (“BHMS”), is required to inform you of its practices in relation to the protected health information that it maintains about you. HIPAA mandates minimum standards that a covered entity such as must maintain in relation to your protected health information. This Notice of Uses is being provided to help you understand how Medicine Shoppe and BHMS meets these minimum standards. It is also meant to inform you of the ways that Medicine Shoppe and BHMS may use the personal information it collects about you and how it may disclose it.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

When you receive care from a healthcare provider, a record of that treatment is made. This record will typically contain information on your diagnosis, treatment, and future plan of treatment and is often collectively referred to as your medical record. This medical record includes protected health information and lays the foundation for determining your plan of care and treatment and allows for a successful means of communication between all healthcare professionals that contribute to your care. HIPAA protects information found in your medical record from disclosure without your authorization. The information protected by HIPAA includes:

- 1. Any information related to your past, present, or future physical or mental health;
- 2. The past, present or future payment for health service you have received
- 3. The specific care that you have received, are receiving or will receive;
- 4. Any information that identifies you as the individual receiving the care; and
- 5. Any information that someone could reasonably use to identify you as receiving the care. This information is referred to as protected health information throughout this notice.

TREATMENT, PAYMENT AND HEALTHCARE OPERATIONS

As a Covered Entity, Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, is required to inform you of how it may use your protected health information. In providing treatment to you, Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, will use your protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment and healthcare operations.

Treatment-As it pertains to Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, treatment means providing to you supplies and durable medical equipment services as ordered by your physician. Treatment also includes coordination and consultation with your physician and other health care providers. As Medicine Shoppe/BHMS provides these services to you, information obtained during this process will be recorded in your medical record. Medicine Shoppe/BHMS will use this information, in coordination with your physician, to determine the best course of treatment for you.

Payment-Payment purposes consist of activities required to obtain reimbursement from your insurance carrier for the services ordered by your physician and provided to you by Medicine Shoppe/BHMS. This includes, but is not limited to, eligibility determination, pre-certification, billing and collection activities, obtaining documentation required by your insurer, and when applicable, disclosure of limited information to consumer reporting agencies.

Healthcare operations-Operations can include, but are not limited to, review of your protected health information by members of Medicine Shoppe/BHMS and professional healthcare staff to ensure compliance with all federal and state regulations. This information will then be utilized to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the services provided to you by Medicine Shoppe/BHMS. Healthcare operations also include Medicine Shoppe/BHMS business management and general administrative activities.

OTHER USES AND DISCLOSURES

In order to release information contained in your medical record for purposes other than treatment, payment or healthcare operations, Medicine Shoppe/BHMS must obtain a specific signed authorization from you. You may revoke such authorization at any time, except to the extent Medicine Shoppe/BHMS has taken action in reliance on the authorization.

There are a limited number of other uses and disclosures of protected health information that do not require a specific authorization from you. Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, may in the following circumstances disclose your protected health information.

- 1. Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, may disclose limited health information about you to notify local agencies (I.E. power, gas, phone company, and emergency medical services), in the event of an emergency (I.E. flood, tornadoes, etc.), of your need for life sustaining equipment or assistance evacuation due to your medical condition.
- 2. Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, may disclose to a member of your family, other relative, or a close personal friend, or any other person identified by you, the protected health information directly relevant to such person's involvement with your care or payment related to your health care.

- 3. Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, may disclose protected health information to others as required by law.
- 4. Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, may disclose protected health information for certain public health activities and purposes.
- 5. Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, may disclose protected health information to a legally-authorized government authority, such as a social service or protective services agency, if we reasonably believe you are a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence.
- 6. Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, may disclose protected health information for law enforcement purposes and in response to court orders or subpoenas.
- 7. Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, may disclose protected health information to agencies authorized by law to conduct health oversight activities, including audits, investigations, licensing and similar activities.
- 8. Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, may disclose protected health information to attorneys, accountants, and others acting on behalf of Medicine Shoppe/BHMS, provided they have signed written contracts agreeing to safeguard the confidentiality of the information.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A PATIENT OF MEDICINE SHOPPE AND BHMS

In accordance with HIPAA you have the following rights in relation to your protected health information.

- 1. You may request, in writing, additional restrictions to the use or disclosure of your protected health information; however, Medicine Shoppe/BHMS is not required to agree to the request for restrictions.

- 2. You have the right to request amendments to your medical record.
- 3. You have the right of access to inspect and obtain a copy of your medical record, subject to certain limitations.
- 4. You have the right to obtain an accounting of disclosures of your medical record for purposes other than treatment, payment and healthcare operations.
