ADVENT | CHRISTMAS | EPIPHANY | LENT | EASTER | PENTECOST

THE SEASON OF LENT

The season of Lent originated as a time of preparation for Easter, spanning 40 days (not including Sundays) from Ash Wednesday to Holy Saturday. The focus of Lent is repentance - a turning of our hearts, minds, and actions from ourselves to God. The Sundays in Lent are in the season but not of it and are celebrated as "feast" days, traditionally days on which Lenten fasts are broken as we gather together for worship and to celebrate Christ's resurrection.

THE COLOR OF LENT

Purple, the color of Lent, signifies penitence and humility and is meant to remind us of humanity's suffering under sin and of Christ's suffering on the cross- the color of a bruise. Purple is also the color of royalty and anticipates the coming glory of Christ's resurrection on Easter.

"ALL SAINTS IS A COMMUNITY OF GOD'S PEOPLE
CALLED TO LIVE AS THE BODY OF CHRIST
IN AUSTIN FOR THE WORLD
THROUGH WORSHIP, SPIRITUAL FORMATION AND SERVICE."

"Am I a stone, and not a sheep,
That I can stand, O Christ, beneath thy cross,
To number drop by drop Thy Blood's slow loss,
And yet not weep?"

Not so those women loved
Who with exceeding grief lamented Thee;
Not so fallen Peter weeping bitterly;
Not so the thief was moved;

Not so the Sun and Moon
Which hid their faces in a starless sky,
A horror of great darkness at broad noon-
I, only I.

Yet give not o'er,
But seek Thy sheep, true Shepherd of the flock;
Greater than Moses, turn and look once more
And smite a rock. "

-Christina Rossetti, "Beneath Thy Cross"

PRELUDE

PSALM 22:1-21

(PLAIN CHANT, SOLO: JAMIE TAYLOR)

- 1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?
- 2 O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer,
and by night, but I find no rest.
- 3 Yet you are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel.
- 4 In you our fathers trusted;
they trusted, and you delivered them.
- 5 To you they cried and were rescued;
in you they trusted and were not put to shame.
- 6 But I am a worm and not a man,
scorned by mankind and despised by the people.
- 7 All who see me mock me;
they make mouths at me; they wag their heads;
- 8 "He trusts in the LORD; let him deliver him;
let him rescue him, for he delights in him!"
- 9 Yet you are he who took me from the womb;
you made me trust you at my mother's breasts.
- 10 On you was I cast from my birth,
and from my mother's womb you have been my God.
- 11 Be not far from me,
for trouble is near,
and there is none to help.
- 12 Many bulls encompass me;
strong bulls of Bashan surround me;
- 13 they open wide their mouths at me,
like a ravening and roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint;
my heart is like wax;
it is melted within my breast;
15 my strength is dried up like a potsherd,
and my tongue sticks to my jaws;
you lay me in the dust of death.

16 For dogs encompass me;
a company of evildoers encircles me;
they have pierced my hands and feet—

17 I can count all my bones—
they stare and gloat over me;
18 they divide my garments among them,
and for my clothing they cast lots.

19 But you, O LORD, do not be far off!
O you my help, come quickly to my aid!
20 Deliver my soul from the sword,
my precious life from the power of the dog!
21 Save me from the mouth of the lion!

COLLECT

People: For ever and ever. Amen.

Minister: Let us pray: Almighty God, we pray you graciously to behold this your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given into the hands of sinners, and to suffer death upon the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

HOMILY

REV. GREG GROOMS

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST ACCORDING TO JOHN

THE CONGREGATION IS SEATED FOR THE FIRST PART OF THE PASSION.

AT THE VERSE WHICH MENTIONS THE ARRIVAL AT GOLGOTHA ALL STAND.

Narrator: Jesus went out with his disciples across the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. And Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. So Judas, having procured a band of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, went there with lanterns and torches and weapons. Jesus, knowing all that would happen to him, came forward and said to them,

Jesus: "Whom do you seek?"

Narrator: They answered him,

Soldier: "Jesus of Nazareth."

Narrator: He said to them,

Jesus: "I am he."

Narrator: Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. When Jesus said to them, "I am he," they drew back and fell to the ground.

So he asked them again,

Jesus: "Whom do you seek?"

Priest: "Jesus of Nazareth."

Jesus: "I told you that I am he. So, if you seek me, let these men go."

Narrator: This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken: "Of those whom you gave me I have lost not one." Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant and cut off his right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.) So Jesus said to Peter,

Jesus: "Put your sword into its sheath; shall I not drink the cup that the Father has given me?"

Narrator: So the band of soldiers and their captain and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound him.

HYMN

I PUT MY LIFE IN YOUR HANDS (PSALM 31)

DUET: DAVID LUTES & JAMIE TAYLOR

Refrain: Father, I put my life in your hands.

In you, O Lord, I take refuge;
Let me never be put to shame.
In your justice rescue me, oh my faithful Lord.
In your hands I commend my spirit. (Refrain)

For all my foes reproach me;
All my friends are now put to flight.
I am forgotten like the unremembered dead,
Like a vessel that now is broken. (Refrain)

I place my trust in you, Lord;
In your hands is my destiny.
Let your face shine upon your servant, Lord.
In your hands I will place my life. (Refrain)

(Text: from Psalm 31; Music: Marty Haugen; arr. David Lutes; CCLI license #2476739)

Narrator: Those who had arrested Jesus first led him to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. It was Caiaphas who had advised the Jews that it would be expedient that one man should die for the people. The high priest then questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching. Jesus answered him,

Jesus: “I have spoken openly to the world. I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret. Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them; they know what I said.”

Narrator: When he had said these things, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with his hand, saying,

Officer: “Is that how you answer the high priest?”

Narrator: Jesus answered him,

Jesus: “If what I said is wrong, bear witness about the wrong; but if what I said is right, why do you strike me?”

Narrator: Annas then sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest. Now Simon Peter had followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he entered with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, but Peter stood outside at the door. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the servant girl who kept watch at the door, and brought Peter in. The servant girl at the door said to Peter,

Servant 1: “You also are not one of this man’s disciples, are you?”

Peter: “I am not.”

Narrator: Now the servants and officers had made a charcoal fire, because it was cold, and they were standing and warming themselves. Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself. So they said to him,

Servant 2: “You also are not one of his disciples, are you?”

Peter: “I am not.”

Servant 3: “Did I not see you in the garden with him?”

Narrator: Peter again denied it, and at once a rooster crowed.

Narrator: Early in the morning they led Jesus from the house of Caiaphas to the governor's headquarters. They themselves did not enter the governor's headquarters, so that they would not be defiled, but could eat the Passover. So Pilate went outside to them and said,

Pilate: "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

Narrator: They answered him,

Elder: "If this man were not doing evil, we would not have delivered him over to you."

Pilate: "Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law."

Elder: "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death."

Narrator: This was to fulfill the word that Jesus had spoken to show by what kind of death he was going to die. So Pilate entered his headquarters again and called Jesus and said to him,

Pilate: "Are you the King of the Jews?"

Jesus: "Do you say this of your own accord, or did others say it to you about me?"

Pilate: "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered you over to me. What have you done?"

Jesus: "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have been fighting, that I might not be delivered over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not from the world."

Pilate: So you are a king?"

Jesus: "You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice."

Pilate: "What is truth?"

Narrator: After he had said this, he went back outside to the Jews and told them,

Pilate: “I find no guilt in him. But you have a custom that I should release one man for you at the Passover. So, do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?”

Crowd Member: “Not this man, but Barabbas!”

Narrator: Now Barabbas was a robber. Then Pilate took Jesus and flogged him. And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on his head and arrayed him in a purple robe. They came up to him, striking him with their hands and saying,

Soldier: “Hail, King of the Jews! Hail, King of the Jews!”

Narrator: Pilate went out again and said to them,

Pilate: “See, I am bringing him out to you that you may know that I find no guilt in him.”

Narrator: So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them,

Pilate: “Behold, the man!”

Narrator: When the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out,

Priest: “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

Pilate: “Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no guilt in him.”

Priest: “We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has made himself the Son of God.”

Narrator: When Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid. He entered his headquarters again and said to Jesus,

Pilate: “Where are you from?”

Narrator: But Jesus gave him no answer.

Pilate: “You will not speak to me? Do you not know that I have authority to release you and authority to crucify you?”

Jesus: “You would have no authority over me at all unless it had been given you from above. Therefore he who delivered me over to you has the greater sin.”

Narrator: From then on Pilate sought to release him, but the Jews cried out,

Crowd Member: “If you release this man, you are not Caesar’s friend. Everyone who makes himself a king opposes Caesar.”

Narrator: So when Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Stone Pavement, and in Aramaic Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation of the Passover. It was about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews,

Pilate: “Behold your King!”

Narrator: They cried out,

PEOPLE: “CRUCIFY HIM! CRUCIFY HIM! CRUCIFY HIM!”

Narrator: Pilate said to them,

Pilate: “Shall I crucify your King?”

Priest: “We have no king but Caesar.”

Narrator: So he delivered him over to them to be crucified.

(ALL STAND)

Narrator: So they took Jesus, and he went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called The Place of a Skull, which in Aramaic is called Golgotha.

There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them. Pilate also wrote an inscription and put it on the cross. It read, “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.” Many of the Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Aramaic, in Latin, and in Greek. So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate,

Priest: “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but rather,
‘This man said, I am King of the Jews.’”

Pilate: “What I have written I have written.”

Narrator: When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his garments and divided them into four parts, one part for each soldier; also his tunic. But the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom, so they said to one another,

Soldier: “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it shall be.”

Narrator: This was to fulfill the Scripture which says, “They divided my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots.” So the soldiers did these things, but standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother,

Jesus: “Woman, behold, your son!”

Narrator: Then he said to the disciple,

Jesus: “Behold, your mother!”

Narrator: And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home. After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the Scripture),

Jesus: “I thirst.”

Narrator: A jar full of sour wine stood there, so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop branch and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the sour wine, he said,

Jesus: “It is finished,”

Narrator: He bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Narrator: Since it was the day of Preparation, and so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water. He who saw it has borne witness—his testimony is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth—that you also may believe. For these things took place that the Scripture might be fulfilled: “Not one of his bones will be broken.” And again another Scripture says, “They will look on him whom they have pierced.”

After these things Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away his body. Nicodemus also, who earlier had come to Jesus by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds in weight. So they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, since the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

CHORAL RESPONSE

O SACRED HEAD NOW WOUNDED

CHOIR:

O sacred Head, now wounded, with grief and shame weighed down,
Now scornfully surrounded with thorns, Thine only crown;
O sacred Head, what glory what bliss 'til now was Thine
Yet though despised and gory I joy to call Thee mine

What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered, was all for sinners' gain;
Mine, mine was the transgression, but Thine the deadly pain.
Lo, here I fall, my Savior! 'Tis I deserve Thy place;
Look on me with Thy favor, Vouchsafe me to Thy grace.

What language shall I borrow to praise Thee, heavenly friend,
For this my dying sorrow, Thy pity without end?
Lord make me Thine forever, nor let me faithless prove
Oh let me never, never abuse such dying love

Be near when I am dying oh show Thy cross to me
And for my succor flying come Lord and set me free
These eyes new faith receiving from Jesus shall not move
For he who dies believing dies safely, through Thy love
