FIBER SPLICE PROTECTION SLEEVES

ACP'S INAUGURAL PRODUCT

ACP International was established in 1986 and began selling fiber splice protection sleeves to the telecom and cable industries. As a company, we have a proven 30-year track record with fiber splice sleeves.

Today, the product line has grown, but the company still provides the same personalized service. We can also customize splice sleeves -- meeting each customer's exact specifications and needs.

Call today to order ACP Fiber Splice Protection Sleeves. They are made in the U.S.A. and most orders are ready to ship the same day.
