What Information Do We Collect?

Fairmount Pharmacy collects the domain name (ex:abc.com) of a visitor's server whenever possible. FPI collects any information a visitor provides on a registration, survey form or subscription form.

How Do We Use the Information Collected?

Fairmount Pharmacy does not sell, rent or trade personal information about its website visitors. The domain name of the visitor's server is used to determine the number of visitors to our site and the sources of that traffic. Email addresses provided by visitors are used to:

Respond to comments, feedbacks and survey forms when appropriate.

Distribute personalized emails about healthcare information to those who request such personalized emails.

We may also collect information that is combined with other web visitors' information such as how often visitors visit and click on each web page and methods used to access site. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies. Fairmount Pharmacy use cookies only to monitor the number of visitors from other websites. Our cookies do not contain information that allows us to identify you personally. To view our website, your browser needs to accept cookies. You can delete cookies from your hard drive at any time. You can set your internet browser so that it will not allow cookies to be stored on your device. This will prevent you from using our website. Further information on how to prevent cookies from being stored on your device can be found at <http://www.allaboutcookies.org> under "manage cookies" section. Or you can obtain more information by accessing the help menu within your internet browser. To opt out of tracking across all websites visit <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

Consent

By using our website, you consent to the collection and use of the information discussed above. Changes to our policy will be posted to this page so user may always be aware of what information is being collected, how it is stored, and under what circumstances it is being disclosed.
