

Are you an accounting professional that enjoy rolling up your sleeves for all things related to accounting and data? Monthly tasks related to budget tracking, accrued expenses, analysis and maintenance of fiscal records and providing overall accounting and finance support? Do you also have a strong passion for music, the arts, and entertainment? Are you trying to figure out how to have your cake and eat it too – combine both your passions? If so, check out KAABOO!

Forget what you know about music festivals, we're shifting the paradigm and have started something new. KAABOO is the perfect weekend escape, described in a word that comes from whatever we feel like yelling when we're high on life and having fun. KAABOO is a curated three-day sound voyage that combines rock-n-roll music and taste making events in a modern wonderland on the warm shores of the pacific. Where every detail is designed for your enjoyment and clean, comfortable amenities inspire you to break from your busy life, let loose and enjoy the experience.

Visit www.kaaboodelmar.com for more information.

Responsibilities:

- Ensure that accounting records are maintained in accordance with stated policies and procedures.
- Ensure accounting procedures are adhered to based upon compliance policies and operating arrangements.
- Prepare general ledger entries by maintaining journal records, logs and reconciling accounts.
- Monthly and Quarterly Financial reporting including supplementary information.
- Responsible for accounts receivables, including collections and deposits.
- Support accounts payable activities to ensure accuracy, timeliness and execution including back-up support.
- Ensure Event Reporting Execution, including on-site settlement and cash management
- Assist independent auditors with audit engagements

Qualifications/Requirements:

- Minimum 2 to 4 years' experience performing professional level accounting responsibilities
- Bachelors degree in Accounting
- Excellent analytical and problem solving skills
- Superior communication skills allowing you to work effectively and efficiently across several departments within the company

If you are looking for an excellent opportunity to join a growing and entrepreneurial spirited company, please send resume and salary expectations to jobs@kaaboodelmar.com.