Agreement and Consent Form

I am a recognized by the State Board of Social Work Examiners as a Licensed Clinical Social Worker. This permits me to provide therapeutic services in a private practice setting. I hold a Master's Degree in Social Work from the University of Texas at Austin. I am also licensed to be a Board Approved Supervisor for post graduate social workers seeking their clinical licensure.

I hope to create a safe and warm environment for you to discuss your needs. Assessment, the number of sessions, treatment and outcomes will vary for each client. A continual discussion of individualized goals should be discussed as well as any concerns you may have during the course of this therapeutic relationship.

Confidentiality

All information disclosed within sessions and the written records pertaining to those sessions are confidential and may not be revealed to anyone without your (client's) written permission, except where disclosure is required by law:

- Where there is a reasonable suspicion of child, dependent or elder abuse or neglect.
- Where a client presents a danger to self, to others, to property, or is gravely disabled.
- When client's family members communicate to Doran Oatman that the client presents a danger to others.
- A medical emergency
- The client discloses sexual contact with another mental health professional.
- The client authorizes the therapist to release records.
- The therapist is ordered by a court to disclose information.
- The therapist is otherwise required by law to disclose information.

Please see our Notice of Privacy Practices for more information on Disclosure and Your Rights.

Emergencies

I do not provide 24-hour or emergency therapy services. Should you or someone you know require emergency service, you may call or seek services from the following: Psychiatric Emergency Hotline at 512-472-HELP (4347), go to the nearest hospital room, or dial 911 for emergency assistance. If there is an emergency during our work together, I will do whatever I can within the limits of the law to make sure you receive proper medical care.

Social Media and Electronic Communication

In following the National Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics, I am mindful of the ways that connecting with clients on social networks may potentially compromise client confidentiality or may create multiple relationships with people with whom we have already established one type of professional relationship. Social media contact that is prohibited includes and is not limited to Facebook, Twitter, Google plus and LinkedIn. I will use my professional facebook page to post articles and information about her practice. I will never reveal client information on this page. It is left to your discretion should you choose to comment on the professional facebook page. I prefer using email only to arrange or modify appointments. Please do not email me content related to your therapy sessions, as email is not completely secure or confidential.

Fees and/or Additional Costs

I am not on insurance panels; however, I can provide receipts at the end of every session that you can submit to your insurance company. Please call your insurance company before entering into treatment to determine your own benefits and reimbursement.

Fees are set at $125 for a 50-minute session and $175 for an 80-minute session. Cash, check, credit, debit and HSA cards are accepted forms of payment. Payment is due at the time of service delivery. Appointments not canceled within twenty-four hours before the scheduled appointment time could be subject to the whole session fee. Failure to keep three appointments, may result in termination of treatment. There will be a $25 charge for all returned checks. If I am required to be involved in court matters, the fee is $300/hour with a half-day minimum. There is no sliding scale on these costs. If a copy of the record or treatment summary is requested you will be charged $.25 for each page copied and you will be expected to pay for the copies at the time you pick them up.
