Dear Applicant:

We have considered your September 9, 2016 request for recognition of an unusual grant under Treasury Regulations section 1.170A-9(f)(6)(ii) and related provisions.

Based on the information provided, we have concluded that the proposed grant constitutes an unusual grant under section 1.170A-9(f)(6)(ii) and related provisions of the regulations. The basis for our conclusion is set forth below.

Facts:

You are a local community foundation. In 2002 you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and as a publicly supported organization described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Code.

The Trustee of C, a Charitable Lead Trust, shall hold and manage the trust property distributed to it from D, a revocable trust, for a term which commenced with the date of the grantor's death and shall end on the twentieth anniversary thereof. During the trust term C shall pay you, for your general purposes, an amount equal to five percent of the net fair market value of the trust assets, valued as of the first day of the taxable year, at the end of the same taxable year. The grantor died in 2011. You estimate the distributions will range between e dollars and f dollars per year. The total expected distributions to you over the trust term will be between g dollars and h dollars. The grants will be received in cash and placed in an endowment to support your charitable activities.

You carry on a program of public solicitation attracting significant public support. You are governed by a volunteer board elected annually which is comprised of community leaders. Before his death the grantor had made no contributions to you, had no other relationship to you, and had not discussed with you the possibility of making you the beneficiary of the trust.

Prior to this request D made three contributions to you as advancements against and credited toward the annual payments to you required under C. These grants are not subject to this ruling.

Law:

Treasury Regulations sections 1.170A-9(f)(6)(ii) and 1.509(a)-3(c)(4) set forth the criteria for an unusual grant.

Treasury Regulations section 1.170A-9(f)(6)(ii) states that, for purposes of applying the 2-percent limitation to determine whether the 33 1/3 percent-of-support test is satisfied, one or more contributions may be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator of the applicable percent-of-support fraction. The exclusion is generally intended to apply to substantial contributions or bequests from disinterested parties which:

- are attracted by reason of the publicly supported nature of the organization;
- are unusual or unexpected with respect to the amount thereof; and
- would, by reason of their size, adversely affect the status of the organization as normally being publicly supported.

Treasury Regulations section 1.509(a)-3(c)(4) states that all pertinent facts and circumstances will be taken into consideration to determine whether a particular contribution may be excluded. No single factor will necessarily be determinative. Such factors may include:

- Whether the contribution was made by a person who
  a. created the organization
  b. previously contributed a substantial part of its support or endowment
  c. stood in a position of authority with respect to the organization, such as a foundation manager within the meaning of section 4946(b)
  d. directly or indirectly exercised control over the organization, or
  e. was in a relationship described in Internal Revenue Code section 4946(a)(1)(C) through 4946(a)(1) (G) with someone listed in bullets a, b, c, or d above.

  A contribution made by a person described in a. - e. is ordinarily given less favorable consideration than a contribution made by others not described above.

- Whether the contribution was a bequest or an inter vivos transfer. A bequest will ordinarily be given more favorable consideration than an inter vivos transfer.

- Whether the contribution was in the form of cash, readily marketable securities, or assets which further the exempt purposes of the organization, such as a gift of a painting to a museum.

- Whether (except in the case of a new organization) prior to the receipt of the particular contribution, the organization (a) has carried on an actual program of public solicitation and exempt activities and (b) has been able to attract a significant amount of public support.

- Whether the organization may reasonably be expected to attract a significant amount of public support after the particular contribution. Continued reliance on unusual grants to fund an organization's current operating expenses (as opposed to providing new endowment funds) may be evidence that the organization cannot reasonably be expected to attract future public support.

- Whether, prior to the year in which the particular contribution was received, the organization met the one-third support test described in section 1.509(a)-3(a)(2) without the benefit of any exclusions of unusual grants pursuant to section 1.509-3(c)(3);

- Whether the organization has a representative governing body as described in Treasury Regulations section 1.509(a)-3(d)(3)(i); and

- Whether material restrictions or conditions within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 1.507-2(a)(7) have been imposed by the transferor upon the transferee in connection with such transfer.

Application of Law:

Based on the information provided, the proposed grants meet the characteristics of an unusual grant described in section 1.170A-9(f)(6)(ii) in that the amount is unexpected and the size of the grant would adversely affect the status of public support. Because the donor is a disinterested party with respect to you, it can be assumed the grant is made because of your publicly supported nature.

You meet the following factors in Treasury Regulations section 1.509(a)-3(c)(4) in that the grant:

a) Was not made by a person who created the organization or previously contributed a substantial amount of your support. The grantor also does not stand in a position of authority with respect to you and does not exercise control over the organization.
b) The grant is a bequest and is in the form of cash.
c) You carry on an actual program of public solicitation, have exempt activities, and have attracted a significant amount of public support over the years.
d) Because you have relied on public support in the past, it can be assumed you will be able to maintain that level of public support in the future.
e) You have a representative governing body in that you have a majority of unrelated board members from a diverse background. A majority of your board have been recognized as Man or Woman of the year by the area chamber of commerce.
f) There are no material conditions placed on the grant. The only condition is that it be used to support charitable organizations in the area.

We have sent a copy of this letter to your representative as indicated in your power of attorney.

If you have any questions, please contact the person listed in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely,

Stephen A. Martin
