Highlights

On Saturday April 25th, a magnitude 7.9 earthquake struck the Lamjung District of Nepal, and over 21 aftershocks have also struck the region. The following is Humanity Road Social Media Situation report.

Norvic International Hospital - Doctors and nurses are treating dozens of people were gathered in the parking lot of Kathmandu’s Norvic International Hospital, where thin mattresses had been spread on the ground. (source)

Durbar Square destroyed - need medical help and manpower to pull people out (source)
Kasthamandap Collapsed - where are police/armies (source)
Dharahara Tower Collapsed (Pic)
Airport at Kathmandu shut down. flights diverting to India. (via @gauravcsawant)
Spark Hospital Damaged (Pic)
Roads in city are reportedly impassable by car (source) via citizen - electricity is up in Shankhamul (source)

Twitter handles
@Humanityroad
@Disasteranimals
@jAidDog

Facebook pages
Humanity Road
Animals in Disaster

Contact: support@humanityroad.org

About Humanity Road: Founded in 2010 as a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation, Humanity Road is a leader in the field of online disaster response. Through skilled and self-directed work teams, Humanity Road and its network of global volunteers aim to provide the public and disaster responders worldwide with timely and accurate aid information. Providing such information helps individuals survive, sustain, and reunite with loved ones. For more information, please visit www.humanityroad.org.
Situation Report: Earthquake Nepal

Situation Report – (period covered: April 25, 2015)

Prepared by: Humanity Road / Animals in Disaster
*Follow: @Humanityroad / @Disasteranimals / @jAidDog /

Situation Overview

Background:
Kathmandu is the capital and largest metropolitan city of Nepal. The city is the urban core of the Kathmandu Valley in the Himalayas, which also contains two sister cities namely Patan or Lalitpur, 5 kilometres (3.1 mi) to its southeast and Bhaktapur, 14 kilometres (8.7 mi) to its east. It is also acronymed as ‘KTM’. The city stands at an elevation of approximately 1,400 metres (4,600 ft) in the bowl-shaped valley in central Nepal surrounded by four major mountains, namely: Shivapuri, Phulchowki, Nagarjun and Chandragiri.

Highlights: On Saturday April 25th, a magnitude 7.9 earthquake struck the Lamjung District of Nepal, and over 21 aftershocks have also struck the region including a 5.2 in the mountains causing a landslide. Important to note that we are providing relevant associated links but that they may not be responsive due to damage, loss of power, or unavailable bandwidth.

- Location of localities affected in Lamjung District
  1. 34km (21mi) ESE of Lamjung, Nepal
  2. 58km (36mi) NNE of Bharatpur, Nepal
  3. 73km (45mi) E of Pokhara, Nepal
  4. 76km (47mi) NW of Kirtipur, Nepal
  5. 77km (48mi) NW of Kathmandu, Nepal

- UN Nepal Situation Report April 25

- CASUALTIES (early indications - expect this information to change)
  via Israeli Embassy in Kathmandu - According to Home Ministry official Laxmi Dhakal, at least 758 people were confirmed dead in Nepal, according to the Home Ministry. Another 20 were killed in India, six in Tibet and two in Bangladesh. Two Chinese citizens died at the Nepal-China border. source via AP news - According to Nepal Police At least 688 people were confirmed dead in Nepal. Another 20 were killed in India, six in Tibet and two in Bangladesh. Two Chinese citizens died at the Nepal-China border. Given the scale of the destruction, the death toll is almost certain to rise, said Home Ministry official Laxmi Dhakal. source

- AIRPORT - via Times of India - The Kathmandu airport was shut on Saturday resulting in the

http://humanityroad.org
support@humanityroad.org
cancellation of Indian flights bound for the capital city. (source). For the purpose of the public travel please check with your airline before travel. Current status of flights scheduled to land in Nepal as Tribhuvan Airport can be found here

- HOSPITAL
  - via Haaretz News - Norvic International Hospital - Doctors and nurses are treating dozens of people were gathered in the parking lot of Kathmandu’s Norvic International Hospital, where thin mattresses had been spread on the ground. (source)
  - via local citizen - Spark Hospital Collapse (source)
  - Foreign Ministry said it would expedite the process of bringing to Israel 16 babies with Israeli parents born to surrogate mothers in Nepal. The Foreign Ministry and the Interior Ministry are currently working to issue the necessary documents for the infants so they can be flown to Israel with their parents once the Kathmandu airport is reopened. (source)

- AID COORDINATION
  - Relief material being sent from India to Nepal via Hindon Air Force Base. India has on NDRF team in Nepal. 5 teams at Hindon AFB and 4 at Bathinda, waiting to depart. (Source)
  - Via @IOM_NEWS Communications Officer in Kathmandu Ariani Soejeti can be reached on +9779803493760 (source)
  - Google launched Person finder http://google.org/personfinder/2015-nepal-earthquake
  - Oxfam - A team of Oxfam technical experts carrying equipment to help purify water and provide sanitation are preparing to fly out to Nepal in the wake of today’s earthquake. In a statement, Cecilia Keizer, Oxfam's director in Nepal, said that telephone lines are currently down, while electricity and water have both been cut off. "Many of the old houses have been destroyed and at least one large apartment block has come down in Kathmandu," she said. "People are gathered in their thousands in open spaces and are scared as there have been several aftershocks." (source)
  - Via Turkey’s DR authority AFAD Istanbul SAR team on standby (source)

- EMBASSY INFO
  - US Embassy urgent assistance No. +977 1 423 4068. (Source)
  - Indian Embassy Nepal No. +9779851135141 & +9779851107021 (source)

- Everest Avalanche - #everestavalanche
  - South side of #Everest #Makalu base camp completely destroyed, #Everest all teams in camp 1 & 2 are reporting safe but stuck because destroyed route (source)
  - Nepalese tourism official Gyanendra Shrestha reported to Reuters, "The toll could go up, it may include foreigners as well as sherpas (guides),"Ministry officials estimated that at least 1,000 climbers, including about 400 foreigners, had been at base camp or on Everest when the earthquake struck.

http://humanityroad.org
support@humanityroad.org
○ Ang Tshering of the Nepal Mountaineering Association, told Sky News “that the avalanche apparently happened between the Khumbu Icefall and base camp”. (source) For detailed information from climbers, check article being constantly updated from BMC (source)
○ Follow @NorthmenPK