Situation Overview

As of August 24, 2018 at 8:00am local time, over a million people and five Hawaiian islands are under hurricane warnings: Oahu, Maui, Lanai, Molokai, & Kahoolawe. On Friday morning, Hurricane Lane was reported to be a category 3 Hurricane dropping as much as 31 inches of rain in some parts of Hawaii’s Big Island. All counties have evacuation centers open. More than 1500 are in Red Cross Shelters and 1,000 in shelters in the city of Honolulu. source

The City and County of Honolulu recommends that residents download the city’s smartphone app, HNL.info, also available as a website, to stay informed on traffic and weather alerts. source

FEMA advises the public: Your phone is one of the best sources of information during an emergency. Download our app so you can check what to do, look up shelters, and get weather alert notifications. http://fema.gov/mobile-app

Significant Updates (most recent first)

24 Aug

- Water: @Hgov_Health issued a Brown Water Advisory for the entire State of Hawai‘i, in anticipation of large water runoff from #HurricaneLane source
- Fuel: Hawaii Gas crews have been working statewide to ensure that first responders & essential facilities such as hospitals have adequate supplies of gas for Hurricane Lane and have been refilling propane dispensers so residents on all islands can top off on propane for their grills. source
- Fuel: Maui Oil Company fuel pumps are open and has all fuel types available as of Friday morning! Our office area is closed. source
- Power: Hawaii Electric & Light as of 640a Honomu/Ookala Town update: ~1485 customers restored. ~1,355 customers in Haleaha remain without power. source
- Power: Hawaiian Electric reports that as of 7 a.m. today Aug. 24, there are about 280 customers without power on Oahu. Crews responded to seven major outages overnight, most of them caused by tree branches blown on to power lines. Most customers were restored within an hour source
- Shelter: Red Cross reported more than 1,500 people in Hawaii stayed in shelters Thursday night as they waited out the storm. About 1,100 people were in 20 shelters in Oahu source
- Shelter: Maui Humane Shelter has reported that Red Cross has confirmed they are accepting pets at Lahaina Civic Center for BOTH storm and fire evacuees. MHS is on site however we do NOT have supplies as they were left when we were evacuated from the school shelter. If you are evacuating to the Civic Center, you MUST bring your own supplies for your pets source

- Animal friendly shelters
  - Kamehameha Park Hisaoka Gym: 54-382 Kamehameha Park Road, Kapaa
  - Kealakehe High School: 74-5000 Puohulihuli Street, Kailua-Kona
  - Lahaina Civic Center
- Lahaina Civic Center - Maui Humane Shelter has reported that Red Cross has confirmed they are accepting pets at Lahaina Civic Center for BOTH storm and fire evacuees. MHS is on site however we do NOT have supplies as they were left when we were evacuated from the school shelter. If you are evacuating to the Civic Center, you MUST bring your own supplies for your pets.

pets including crate/carrier, food, water and medication. Please make sure that your pet has identification including tags and/or microchip. [source]
