Giraffe Heroes Project

#StickYourNeckOut

GIRAFFE HEROES | FACEBOOK | TWITTER | CONTACT

Dear Ann,

The Giraffe Heroes Project is formally honoring the American officials who are sticking their necks out to protect democracy from radical efforts to overturn a carefully conducted US election.

From small-town election supervisors to governors, judges, and national legislators, they are standing with the law and the Constitution, many of them facing threats of being fired, losing their elected positions, or even being physically harmed by those who are insisting that they ignore the legitimate votes of the majority of voters.

A special salute to those who are putting principle above party, standing for the democratic process even though the election results were not what they themselves wanted.

Citizens. Public Servants. Patriots. HEROES.

As long as there are Giraffes, there's hope—
