ABOLITIONIST TEA PARTY

with jackie sumell of Solitary Gardens

In the multi-layered setting of Solitary Gardens in the Lower 9th ward, be serenaded by chanteuse Sarah Quintana as you circle up to taste, feel, smell different plants that are indigenous to this soil and enjoy tea prepared from plants grown in the garden. As you process these sensations jackie unpacks the politically clouded concept of Abolition by demonstrating how the natural world endorses this strategy for liberation.

A heady tea party indeed!

jackie sumell's multi-disciplinary work, successfully anchored at the intersection of activism, education, mindfulness practices, has been exhibited extensively throughout the world. She is a Robert Rauschenberg Artist-as-Activist Fellow, a Soros Justice Fellow, among many more accolades. sumell's collaboration with Herman Wallace (a prisoner-of-consciousness and member of the Angola 3) was the subject of the Emmy Award-Winning documentary Herman's House. sumell's work with Herman has positioned her at the forefront of the national campaign to end solitary confinement and seek humane alternatives to incarceration.

DAY IN TREMÉ with Dominique Deary of Backstreet Cultural Museum

This intimate tour of Tremé with Dominique will honor the work of her father, Sylvester, in creating Backstreet - the only institution dedicated to the living performance cultures of Black New Orleans like Second line clubs, Black Indians and Baby Dolls. Meet cultural figures in the neighborhood, like Chief Fi Yi Yi of the Mandingo Warriors Black Indian Tribe, while slow-cruising the neighborhood in the souped up cars of the Louisiana Whipz Car Club. The tour ends at Treme favorite Lil Dizzy's for lunch.

GO TO THE END OF THE ROAD with Monique Verdin

Go to the end of the road with Monique Verdin of Another Gulf is Possible. The celebrated storytelling artist and United Houma Nation tribal member will weave a tale of interconnectedness between land, water and culture. Starting at Congo Square, this full day adventure includes a visit to the Float Lab at Crevasse 22 and a tour of Los Islenos cultural center before going to the end of the road at Shell Beach to board a shrimp boat for an on the water picnic provided by Mosquito Supper Club. Up to 10 people.
