

INDEPENDENT VS. COMMISSION

[the janes' thoughts]

INDEPENDENT:

I choose my hours.

How long I'm going to schedule a service, is my choice.

No one is in "my business"

I'm able to handpick most if not all of my clientele.

I can take any time off that I want to.

Co-workers are not necessary for me, I work best solo for a reason.

COMMISSION:

A schedule is proposed to me

Each service has time parameters.

I have leadership and management overseeing the business.

My clientele has been curated by me & the salon company.

Time off is scheduled & approved by management

Circle of support is my teammates.

LESS HUSTLE. MORE STRATEGY.
