

Myristin® Hip & Joint Formula for Pets

Active Ingredient Information Sheet

Active Ingredients	Contents (per tablet)	What It Is
Cetyl Myristoleate (CMO)	500 mg CMO Complex (provides 100 mg of molecular CMO)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Cetyl Myristoleate is a unique fatty acid ester that is incorporated into the lipid layers of the cell membrane. · Cetyl Myristoleate is often referred to as nature's WD-40 for joints because of its lubricating qualities. · Two U.S. patents: 5,569,676 (1996) and 4,049,824 (1977)
Glucosamine Sulfate	300 mg	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · An amino sugar which is an important precursor for glycosylated proteins and lipids needed for joint health. · Also a precursor for glycosaminoglycans, a major component of joint cartilage. · Sulfate is the preferred form of glucosamine as it provides the sulfate molecule, a key building block for joint health.
Methylsulfonylmethane (MSM)	250 mg	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Found in small amounts in many foods · Coated for greater taste acceptance of product · An excellent source of bio-available sulfur for both animals and humans.
Bromelain	18 mg	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Comes from the stem and part of the pineapple fruit
Curcumin	6 mg	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Also known as Turmeric · A natural inhibitor of Cox-2 enzyme
Vitamin C	150 mg	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · An essential nutrient for animals and humans
Manganese Citrate	10 mg	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · A mineral with a role in joint health
Lipase	4.3 mg	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · An enzyme with a role in digestion of fats
Lecithin	100 mg	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Phosphatidyl choline · Plays a role in absorption of CMO

Updated 22-Feb-2018. Note: Active ingredient contents may change from time to time. Please contact EHP Products for current list.