

Builders and Remodelers

Whether you are looking to remodel a bungalow in East Austin or build a new home in Westlake, Austin offers a slew of firms that have extensive award-winning portfolios.

ANOTHER GREAT HOUSE

Dominique Levesque has evolved as an artist since he moved to Austin in 1994. He arrived as an aspiring musician, and seven years later he applied his creativity to launching a house-painting company. This evolved into Another Great House, which has built dozens of homes and additions in town. Recently, he launched his eponymous construction firm, where he lends his artistic approach to architects building high-end residential units. ## AVENUE B DEVELOPMENT

Avenue B Development was founded when a husband-and-wife team (Jeff and Katie Bullard) decided to save old Austin homes in danger of demolition by buying, renovating and expanding them for families who value living in older homes with an Austin soul. In addition to its award-winning construction and remodeling services, it offers interior design services that range from one-room, one-day makeovers to a full-home overhaul.
